Step One
Go to the medical library website, www.library.fau.edu/medical

Step Two
Click on the “EZ Proxy/Off Campus Access” link located in the left blue menu bar.

Step Three
Click on the white FAU Net ID box in the left blue box.

Step Four
Enter your Username and password. Click Login when ready.

If you don’t have or remember your FAU email, please contact Stephanie Gabrielsen, Administrative Specialist. Her email is sgabrielsen@health.fau.edu.

If you experience login issues, call the Circulation desk at 561-297-6911, or contact OIT at 561-297-3999.

Step Five
If the login was successful, you will see a Congratulations message and will be directed to the main library webpage, www.fau.edu/library. If you do not, try step four again. If you still receive an error, contact the Circulation desk or OIT.

Congratulations! You have been successfully connected! You are now being redirected to the FAU Library Homepage to continue your research.

While connected to EZproxy, most URLs will look like: "http://database_URL.ezproxy.fau.edu/..."

If this doesn’t work for your browser, please CLICK HERE NOW!
Step Six

Once you connect to EZ Proxy, you will be automatically brought to the main Library page, https://library.fau.edu/. You can begin your search here or return to the medical page via https://www.library.fau.edu/medical. You can also click the “Departments” tab and choose Medical And Health Sciences Collections & User Services to return.

Questions about Resources? Contact Tiffany Follin: tfollin@health.fau.edu