FCALM Membership:

Rose Bland, University of South Florida
Amanda Chiplock, Florida Atlantic University [CO-CHAIR]
Nadine Dexter, University of Central Florida
Luda Dolinsky, Florida International University
Shalu Gillum, University of Central Florida [SECRETARY]
Kimberly Loper, University of Miami
Hannah Norton, University of Florida
Todd Puccio, Nova Southeastern University
Melissa Rethlefsen, University of Florida
Joann Van Schaik, University of Miami
Deedra Walton, University of Central Florida [CAC/ERS REPRESENTATIVE, FCALM GROUP LICENSING NEGOTIATOR]
Martin Wood, Florida State University [CO-CHAIR, CSUL/MCLS REPRESENTATIVE]

Last FCALM meeting: April 4-5, 2019 at FAU

Discussion points included:

• EBSCO/DynaMed (Clinical Reference Tool) Demo w/Nicole Capriotti
  o Newest feature is Stacks
    ▪ Content management system
    ▪ Mobile app available
  o Shared decision-making offerings
    ▪ Option Grid
    ▪ Health Decision
  o New version of DynaMed to be released mid/late Summer
    ▪ Will be premiered at ACP and MLA, then wide scale distribution
    ▪ Price will remain the same for those who already have DynaMed Plus, but significant increase for those who do not (i.e., DynaMed Classic).
  • Discussion re: pricing
    • DynaMed Plus is priced per physician; special pricing for nurses (there is not a per nurse price)
    • DynaMed Plus is limited offered to AMA and ACP as a benefit
      o This will be discontinued; no ETA.

• Announcements/Review of Minutes
  o Minutes approved
  o Welcome FAU Guest, Tiffany Follin. Filling in to take minutes for this meeting.
• Overview of current FCALM deals
  o BMJ
    ▪ BMJ collection through 2020
    ▪ FCALM may want to move in 2021 to premier collection; FSU has already moved to premier collection based on existing FCALM pricing deal.
    ▪ Jo Bouchier is new BMJ representative.
  o EBSCO
    ▪ Heather Beardsley has left EBSCO. New contact is Steph Fraser.
  o NEJM
    ▪ NEJM capped renewal fee at 7%. 2.5% FCALM discount.
    ▪ Negotiations have not started for renewal.
    ▪ Mike Tavares is rep.
  o Thieme
    ▪ 22% discount with a 4% renewal cap.
    ▪ Full participation required.
  o Ovid
    ▪ Review & discussion of institutional subscriptions

• CSUL Update (Rose, standing in for Martin)
  o Thesis and dissertation flyer available
    ▪ Discussion on dissertation portal concerns
  o Google Books (UF)
    ▪ Digitized any book out of copyright.
    ▪ Only cost of project is for employee time pulling books and re-shelving.
    ▪ Institution chooses what to send to Google.
    ▪ Discussion on digitalization (benefits, etc.)
  o Kathy Miller, FGCU
    ▪ Suggested restarting university input for projects

• MCLS (Rose, standing in for Martin)
  o Presentation and discussion of Open Athens
  o FALSC/ALEPH Discussion
  o Next meeting in June (Ocala)
• Michael Pellerin, Teton Data Systems/Osmosis Presentation
  - Usage stats for Osmosis based on individual institution.
  - Students are currently paying $199 per year for (prime) individual access.
  - No curriculum integration available.
  - Michael negotiated additional 15% discount.
    - Deadline for discount TBD.
  - Pricing for 2019 (including 15% discount)
    - Osmosis library: $82 per student
      - Includes video, flash cards, question banks, institutional usage dashboards
    - Osmosis prime: $128 per student
      - Includes all of the above, plus workspace and study schedule.
  - Breakdown slide showed which medical schools subscribe
    - No breakdown of user data, but there are more M1 and M2 students.
  - Faculty can utilize analysis dashboard to see what videos are being watched.
  - Group discussion, Q&A of Osmosis.
    - Pricing & budgets
      - Student population a factor in costs.
      - FCALM suggest rethinking pricing structure.
        - Idea: Students buying with a school discount.
        - Idea: Licensing videos only to place on library website/catalog.

• Textbook affordability discussion
  - FAU has a 60-day adoption, as opposed to the 45-day mandated state-wide adoption

• Loansome Doc
  - Loansome Doc discontinued.
    - No replacement.
    - Introretrieve or public library most viable alternatives.
    - Discussion of ramifications of discontinued services.

Next CSUL/MCLS meeting: June 6-7, 2019 (Martin will attend MCLS meeting)

Next FCALM meeting: September 26-27, 2019 at UCF